

Mr. Dariusz Grębosz established and for nearly 19 years (until February 2018) was the director of Investor Relations in PKN ORLEN SA, one of the biggest fuel companies in Central Europe.

He was responsible for fulfillment of the public company's reporting duties and cooperation with capital market institutions: WSE, PFSA, National Depository for Securities and others. He managed communication with capital market representatives in Poland and abroad, holding thousands of meetings with analysts, investors and shareholders, presenting strategic and operating information about the public company while ensuring the flow of feedback from the shareholders to the company.

He took part in preparation and execution of the initial and secondary public offering of PKN ORLEN's shares and several Eurobond issues. He participated in preparation and communication of the concern's key strategic projects, including strategies and merger and acquisition projects.

He was a Member of the Supervisory Board of Wisła Płock S.S.A and Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Serwis Słupsk Sp. z o.o. He has passed an exam for candidates for supervisory board members in State Treasury companies.

He has completed MBA studies (GFKM and Erasmus University) and postgraduate studies on Value Based Management at the Warsaw School of Economics. He has completed numerous courses and internships in the US, UK and Poland. Graduated from Warsaw University of Life Sciences (SGGW) and studied at AR in Moscow.

Before joining PKN ORLEN S.A. he ran a trading company, managed a consulting and training firm and worked in government administration structures.

He has received numerous awards and distinctions in rankings for his achievements in the area of investor relations: Best Investor Relations in Poland, Best Investor Relations in Central Europe and many others.

I hereby give my consent to the processing of my personal data provided for the purposes of conducting the recruitment process.